

DECOUVERTE du Vietnam

Pauline, notre ancienne ASEM de PS est venue nous présenter le Vietnam. Elle a adopté une petite fille là-bas. Elle y est allée plusieurs fois et a rapporté de très belles tenues et un chapeau pointu fait avec des branches de bananier séchées. Les tenues sont douces et avec plein de brillants. Elle nous a montré beaucoup de billets et nous a expliqué qu'au Vietnam, ils n'avaient pas de pièces. Elle nous a apporté de l'encens car là-bas, ils en fabriquent beaucoup. Elle nous a aussi rapporté des albums photos en bois avec de belles peintures. Elle a montré comment on mangeait avec des baguettes et a apporté des gobelets en bambou.

MERCI PAULINE

SEOUL, KOREA

Seoul beautifully blends modernity and tradition, featuring futuristic buildings and high-tech malls alongside serene palaces like Gyeongbokgung, where I experienced wearing a traditional hanbok.

The street food in Myeongdong was unforgettable! I tried tteokbokki (spicy rice cakes), Korean fried chicken, and sweet hotteok pancakes.

SINGAPORE

Singapore amazed me with how clean and organized everything was! I visited Gardens by the Bay, where giant tree-like structures light up at night—it felt like walking into the future.

It's a city where many cultures live together, and that really shows in the food, languages, and architecture.

BEIJING, CHINA

Beijing is full of history! Walking along the Great Wall of China was a once-in-a-lifetime experience. I also visited the Forbidden City and Tiananmen Square, where I learned a lot about Chinese culture.

Beijing made me feel like I stepped into the past and the future at the same time.

BALI, INDONESIA

Bali was calm, colorful, and beautiful. I stayed near the beach and watched the sunset every evening. The rice terraces in Ubud were so green and peaceful, and I got to see traditional Balinese dances too.

I loved the food, especially nasi goreng and fresh tropical fruits. Everyone I met was warm and welcoming, and the island had a very relaxing, spiritual vibe.

TOKYO, JAPAN

Tokyo is one of the most exciting cities I've ever been to! I explored busy streets like Shibuya and rode some of the world's fastest trains. I also visited peaceful temples and saw cherry blossoms in bloom.

Everything was so clean, and people were polite and respectful. Tokyo is a place where tradition and technology live side by side.

MANILA, PHILIPPINES

Manila felt familiar and full of heart. The people were so friendly, and there was music and laughter everywhere. I explored old places like Intramuros and modern malls like SM Mall of Asia.

I also enjoyed riding a jeepney, which is a fun and colorful way to get around the city.

HO CHI MINH, VIETNAM

Ho Chi Minh City was full of scooters, busy streets, and amazing food stalls! I visited the Cu Chi tunnels and learned about Vietnam's history in a powerful way.

The city felt lively and full of stories at every corner.

BANGKOK, THAILAND

Bangkok was exciting and full of surprises. I visited beautiful temples like Wat Pho and saw the giant golden Reclining Buddha. I also took a boat ride along the Chao Phraya River.

Bangkok is a city that wakes up at night with lights, music, and delicious smells.
